Jeff

Here is what I have on record:

Sidne B Repplier Buried Blk I-Lot 97-2 1925

John George Haggerty Blk I - Lot 99 Grave Unknown 1883

Mary Haggerty Blk I, Lot 99-1 1887

Jon C Haggerty Blk I-Lot 97-4 Year Unknown

Jacob Repplier Blk I, Lot 97-1-1901

Hope that helps - All the records I have is what we were given by the church when the Diocese took over the operation and maintenance of the cemetery about 1965.

Hi Ed,

I saw your name in the stories last year about the hi-tech survey of the Mount Calvary Cemetery in Allison Hill Harrisburg, and found you on the Diocese of Harrisburg website.

I have a genealogical query about six people who may have been buried there. If you are not the appropriate person for this query, might you know to whom I should sent it?

My great grandmother Sidney Repplier was married twice, both times as a Roman Catholic at St. Patrick's Cathedral in Harrisburg. This inquiry is about her two families.

First, can you confirm the burial of:

Sidney Taylor (Berghaus) (Haggerty) Repplier
 b. 19 Feb 1848 Harrisburg
 d. 19 Oct 1925 Reading, Pa.
 buried Mt. Calvary Cem., Harrisburg, 31 Oct, per her death certificate

Second, by any chance are any of the following five persons buried at Mount Calvery?

John George Haggerty (Sidney's first husband, resided Harrisburg)
 b. about 1842
 d. about October 1874 Harrisburg (his estate was inventoried
 Nov. 1 1874)

Mary Theresa Haggerty (child of John George and Sidney Haggerty; baptized St. Patrick's)
 b. 19 Oct 1870
 d. infancy or young

Catharine Repplier Haggerty (child of John George and Sidney Haggerty; baptized St. Patrick's)
 b. 14 Oct 1872
 d. infancy or young

John Haggerty (child of John George and Sidney Haggerty; baptized St.
 Patrick's)
 b. 19 Dec 1874
 d. infancy or young

Jacob Lancaster Repplier (Sidney's second husband, resided Harrisburg & Reading)
 b. 15 May 1844
 d. 21 Apr 1901 Reading, Pa.
 buried "Hamburg (Harrisburg)" per the Reading Dept. of Public Safety ledger

I cannot make sense of the "Hamburg (Harrisburg)", as I cannot find a Hamburg Cemetery in Harrisburg, nor a Catholic cemetery in Hamburg, Berks County.

Thanks,

Jeff Moore
