My dear Mr Whitell

Nov. 8 17

Benjamin Whitell was elected
Staff Bearer of the First Battalion
Gloucester Co. Militia June 15 1775
by Officers of Deptford Greenwich &
Newwich townships
Later he rose to be Captain of Artillery
and was at the Battle of Long Island
and White Plains N.Y.
In the State troops he was under Col Silas
Newcomb and in the Artillery under
Capt Samuel Hugg.

I presume there is no doubt about this being the son of Ann because Job
in his diary says his brother Benjamin was at the Camp at New York
yours truly

TRANSCRIPTION OF FRANK H. STEWART'S LETTER
REGARDING BENJAMIN WHITALL'S REV. WAR SERVICE

Letter photocopied 17 Sep 2007 from the "Whitall" surname files of the Gloucester Co. Historical Society in Woodbury New Jersey.

Transcribed by Jeff Moore, 18 Feb 2008

The librarian at the Historical Society assured me that the signature was that of Frank Stewart.

Frank Stewart (1873-1948) wrote about a dozen historical books and pamphlets about Gloucester and Salem counties.

Nov. 8 [19]17

My Dear Mr Whitall

Benjamin Whitall was elected
Staff Bearer of the First Battalion
Gloucester Co. Militia June 15 1775
by Officers of Deptford Greenwich &
Woolwich townships.

Later he rose to be Captain of Artillery
and was at the Battle of Long Island
and White Plains N.Y.

In the State troops he was under Col Silas
Newcomb and in the Artillery under
Capt Samuel Hugg.

I presume there is no doubt about
this being the son of Ann because Job
in his diary says his brother Benjamin was
at the Camp at New York

Yours truly
