

Burdette No 1

From December 22^d 1858

To January 22^d 1859

Mammals' head!
JPP 6 April 1875

Holyhead Train
~~Tuesday~~

Wednesday

(Detⁿ 22. 1858.)
9 A.M.

My dear papa

I arrived at Holyhead
after a rough passage of 5 hours. I was sick but on the whole it was not ~~very~~ disagreeable.
I am writing this in the Train on the way to the station and will post it when I get there There were only 2 in the cabin besides my-self.

F.E.P.

I forget the day of the month

Rondwell

Friday Dec. 24. 1858.

My dear mamma

I am writing this in the dining room while Mr Sears-
-ly is paying a visit to uncle Charles. I do not think that aunt Seacocks eyes are any worse than when we were at Sandown. Aunt Culbert is very well lively and active.
The boys and uncle Charles are very well, Charley is more than half an inch taller than I am. Georgy is certainly grown but keeps his old proportions so exactly that its is hard to see any difference. Aunt L. says she is going to take me to see the Deerstys and Leucocks to day, which I am very glad of. She say that she is going to have a party on Wednesday and that I must stay for it but I do not know how I can manage it, ask papa what he thinks. I have not been out yet, but ^henever I am done writing I will go out with the boys. It is a lovely morning and the glass is rising which is a decided comfort. We 3 youngsters and aunt C. played Casino last night till 11 oclock and I think she would have played all night if she could. I have got a very comfortable room, and aunt L. has just shown me over the house, I had no idea it was so large.

My expences from Holyhead to this were just one pound 10/ and 8d. I could have booked through from London to Ryde and saved about 2/ and a great deal of trouble, but I did not find it out till I got here

Francis E. Prndergast